

PORT OF NEW ORLEANS

Port of New Orleans is a deep-draft multipurpose port at the center of the world's busiest port system — Louisiana's Lower Mississippi River. Connected to major inland markets and Canada via 14,500 miles of waterways, six class I railroads and the interstate highway system, the Port is the ideal gateway for containers and breakbulk cargo, as well as passenger cruises.

An extensive network of ocean carrier services and added value services make the Port of New Orleans the superior logistics solution. Gaining recognition for our premium connectivity, world-class customer service and strategic location, the Port was recently named one of the fastest growing ports in the U.S. for exports and imports by the Journal of Commerce.

ORGANIZATION – The Board of Commissioners of the Port of New Orleans governs the Port of New Orleans. The Board sets policies and regulates traffic and commerce of the Port. The Board is made up of seven commissioners. They are unsalaried and serve five-year staggered terms. The governor of Louisiana appoints board members from a list of three nominees submitted by 19 local business, civic, labor, education and maritime groups. The seven-person board reflects the three-parish (county) jurisdiction of the Board. Four members are selected from Orleans Parish, two from Jefferson Parish and one from St. Bernard Parish.

INDUSTRIAL REAL ESTATE

In addition to its cargo handling capabilities, the Port of New Orleans has an industrial park, with over 1000 acres of properties that it leases under long and short term agreements.

All of the properties feature convenient access to the Interstate system and most feature access to waterways and the New Orleans Public Belt Railroad, which connects the Port to all six Class I railroads operating in the United States. All are located within 2.5 miles of Lakefront Airport and 7 miles from the New Orleans Central Business District.

The properties are zoned for heavy and light industrial uses:

Existing uses of the properties include:

Shipbuilding and repair	Truck and container depots	Steel distribution
Warehouse and distribution	Basic materials handling	Refrigerated warehousing
Truck and container depots	Cement handling	Manufacturing and Packaging

Lease terms and rates are competitive with the market.
